On Wednesday, April 25th, 2012 at 1:20AM Duluth Police were called to 18th Avenue West and First Street. The caller just witnessed two juvenile female suspects prowling vehicles in the area.

Officers arrived and located the two 14 year old juvenile female suspects, both residents of Duluth and took them into custody. The witness confirmed these were the two suspects he had seen enter two vehicles parked in the 100 block of North 18th Avenue West. Also, just before squads arrived on the scene the suspects were seen checking other vehicles in a nearby parking lot.

They were transported to the Arrowhead Juvenile Center and lodged pending formal charges for Tampering with a Motor Vehicle (2 counts), Possession of Stolen Property, False Name to Police and Curfew Violation.
