INCIDENT DATE :10/22/2009

INCIDENT TIME: 1055 hours

INCIDENT LOCATION: Unknown

SUBJECT: Missing Elderly Male-Larry Crabtree

BY: Information Officer Brad Wick

The Duluth Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating a missing elderly male.

Larry James Crabtree, age 72, was last seen on Sunday, October 4, 2009, wearing a tan jacket, jeans, and black shoes. He is described as a white male, 5'7" tall, 170 lbs, with blue eyes and gray hair. He has resided in Downtown Duluth for ten years and is known to frequent the Main Public Library.

Family, friends, and police are concerned about Mr. Crabtree's health and welfare. He suffers from schizophrenia and is most likely without his medication. Crabtree is not considered a danger to others. This disappearance is unusual behavior for him.

Anyone with information about Larry Crabtree, knows his whereabouts, or has seen him, is asked to call 911.
