SUBJECT: First Pop-Up Splash Pad at Keene Creek Park this Friday

BY: Alicia Watts

Duluth Parks and Recreation and the Duluth Fire Department is excited to launch this pilot program and will be popping up at three neighborhood parks this summer.

Attendees can run through the spray of a fire hose, as well as participate in water games and other fun challenges. These events are free and open to all ages.

This Friday, July 15 will be at Keene Creek Park (Bristol Street and 63rd Avenue West). Due to the event, the parking lot on the corner of Bristol Street and 63rd Avenue West will close from 1:30-5:30 p.m. Attendees can park on streets, obeying posted signage and alternate side parking. The Keene Creek Dog Park Parking lot on 62nd Avenue West will remain open.
