Duluth Welcomes Back Students with Weekly Open Skating Events

First Open Skate Starts Tonight

[Duluth, MN] - The summer open skate program organized through the City of Duluth Parks and Recreation in partnership with the Essentia Duluth Heritage Center (120 S. 30th Ave) is transitioning from summer to the school year schedule. Starting tonight, September 19, open skate runs from 6:30-8 pm every Wednesday, that school is in session, as part of the free healthy recreational opportunities offered through Duluth Parks and Recreation.

Watch for special skating parties to be announced that celebrate various holidays.

Open skate is free to all participants. Children under the age of 10 should be accompanied by an adult. Please bring your own skates as there are limited number available for rent at no cost.
