Centenarian Birthday Party To Be Held October 18 In Duluth

[Duluth, MN] - The South Pioneer Hall at the Duluth Entertainment Convention Center (DECC) will be the host site for the annual "100 Year Birthday Party Celebration" Thursday, October 18, at 10 AM. The City of Duluth will honor 10 individuals celebrating their centenarian birthdays! The public is invited to attend.

Dan Hanger from Fox 21 News will be the host and read a short biography on each guest before presenting a special certificate of honor from the City. The audience will sing "Happy Birthday" and everyone will get to enjoy birthday cake and coffee.

The media is welcome to interview willing guests to gain insight on their interesting life stories. The following are expected to attend:

Virginia Nelson – 102

Thelma Kortkamp – 101

Ann Moloney – 102

Irene Swallow – 101

Marian Rotondi – 101

Janet Peterson – 104

Faye Griffin – 100

Virginia Peterson – 100

Kenneth Anderson – 100

Martha Westlund - 103

The party is held in conjunction with the Northland Senior Expo and is sponsored by the City of Duluth with support from the AEOA Senior Dining Program, The North Shore Estates, and Age Well Arrowhead. Come to Pioneer Hall at 9:30 am to get a good seat along with all the exhibits and other entertaining features of the Northland Senior Expo. For more information on the birthday party, call 218-730-4307.
