2. Police Liaison Report

Lt. Mike Ceynowa reported on the recent reports (Disciplinary Restraint, Excessive force).

Report was given that all of the car cameras and body cameras are all in synch thanks to new technology. Commissioner Vaccarella had a question concerning the camera and discussion followed. Commissioner Vaccarella had a follow up question about the report and are we using information that is year to date. Lt Ceynowa reported on the burglaries, thefts and incidents and shared that the numbers were down for the month.

Chair Davis brought up 2 incidents in the community and shared that he would follow up with Lt. Ceynowa.

There were no board reports at this time.

3. Announcements

Commissioner Vaccarella asked if there was a way to bring announcements to the meeting so that commissioners would be aware of opportunities to get involved in community. Human Rights Officer Carl Crawford mentioned sending any announcements to the City so that it could be placed on the community calendar. There was discussion about some events like Guns and Hoses softball game and the Kids, Cops and Cars event.

4. Open comments

City Counselor Van Nett introduced a community member that had an incident with the Duluth Police Department and her daughter. She shared her story and asked for support for her and her family. Chair Davis thanked the guest and shared that he would follow up.

Community member asked about security for the President when he visited Duluth. Discussion followed and it was mentioned that this will probably not be the last visit to Duluth by this President.

HRO Crawford asked the Board to look at the pocket hand out for the Citizen Review Board and suggest any changes to the document. The plan was to hand them out during Duluth Sidewalk Days also it is almost time for a reprint. The Board agreed to email any changes to the handout.
