SUBJECT: Duluth Police Remind Citizens of Snow Removal Ordinance

BY: DPD Public Information Officer Jim Hansen (218) 390-2232

The Duluth Police Department has received complaints about snow removal since our last Winter Storm. We are reminding citizens that it is illegal to remove snow from your property and place it upon any city streets, sidewalks, alleys or other public grounds.

See attached City Ordinance:

Sec. 45-73. Depositing, etc., accumulations of snow on lots, etc., prohibited.

The depositing, placing or throwing, upon any of the public sidewalks, ways or other public grounds, Of snow or accumulations thereof for the purpose of removing such snow or accumulation thereof from any lot, tract or parcel of land, is hereby prohibited. No person, as owner, lessee, occupant, tenant or agent, of any lot, parcel or tract of land, shall allow, authorize, direct or permit another to do or cause to be done any of the things forbidden by this Section. (Ord. No. 6871, § 10.)

Your cooperation is requested in minimizing the need for enforcement action.
