City Seeks Musicians for Chester Creek Concert Series

[Duluth, MN] - The City of Duluth Parks and Recreation division is planning for the upcoming 2016 concerts and invites musicians to be part of the 34th Annual Chester Creek Concert series, held every Tuesday evening during the summer months starting June 14. The City's application process has been designed to be open and welcoming to all those who wish to apply. The deadline for submitting an application is February 14, 2016.

The Selection Committee will review and discuss the audio and video samples provided by applicants and determine the top candidates to offer a slot on the concert schedule. The City will not be conducting live auditions. The Selection Committee plans to finalize their choices by March 15 and contact those selected to confirm dates in the line-up by March 18th.
