Public Meeting to Discuss Vacation Rentals

[Duluth, MN] – The public is invited to a City of Duluth public meeting to address Vacation Rentals. This engagement is the second in a series of ongoing meetings discussing the current vacation dwelling unit ordinance and to consider revising and/or including additional standards to provide a balanced approach in regulating short-term rentals. The meeting will include a staff presentation on concepts developed from research and public comments compiled from the previous meeting. The meeting details are:

Thursday January 21st, 2016

3:30 - 5:00 pm

City Hall, Room 303

411 West First Street

Questions can be directed to John Kelley in the City's Planning Division at (218) 730-5326.
