PEDDLERS AND SIMILAR ACTIVITY FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. I am interested in selling items around town, possibly at different locations and events, what is needed?

There is a "Peddlers" license for a person/business that "goes from place to place, with a product for sale." Those taking orders for a later delivery, nonprofits and those who DO NOT "go from place to place" are NOT REQUIRED to secure this license, but some still choose to secure the peddlers license. In addition, depending on the particular type of product, there might be an additional license required, for example, for fireworks contact the Duluth Fire Department, for food contact the Minnesota Department of Health. Also, depending on the product, it might be subject to City of Duluth Sales Tax.

2. What are the restrictions as to where a person can sell, regardless of needing a license or not?

You CANNOT be on private property without their permission. In addition, you cannot be on the Corps of Engineers' property adjacent to the Aerial Lift Bridge. If on public streets or sidewalks you CANNOT interfere with either vehicular or pedestrian traffic, that is, you CANNOT be "set-up" in one location and "plug" the parking meter, you must continue to move from place to place. (Note: The whole bricked area in Canal Park, bordered by Canal Park Drive, Buchanan Street and Lake Avenue is a public area, and you CANNOT be "set-up," you must keep moving.) For public property other than public streets or sidewalks, one needs permission from the City Property Manager. Peddler permits cannot be used in public parks.

3. When there is something like Sidewalk Days or Grandma's Marathon when the public streets are closed are there any further restrictions?

If there is an approved special events permit for an area (i.e. Sidewalk Days, Grandma's Marathon, etc.) a person/business interested in selling items must get permission from the holder of the approved special events permit to sell in the special events permit area.

4. What are the regulations relative to Bayfront Festival Park?

In the case of large events, such as Fourth Fest or the Blues Fest, the approved promoter has the authority for approving what vendors are at the specific events.

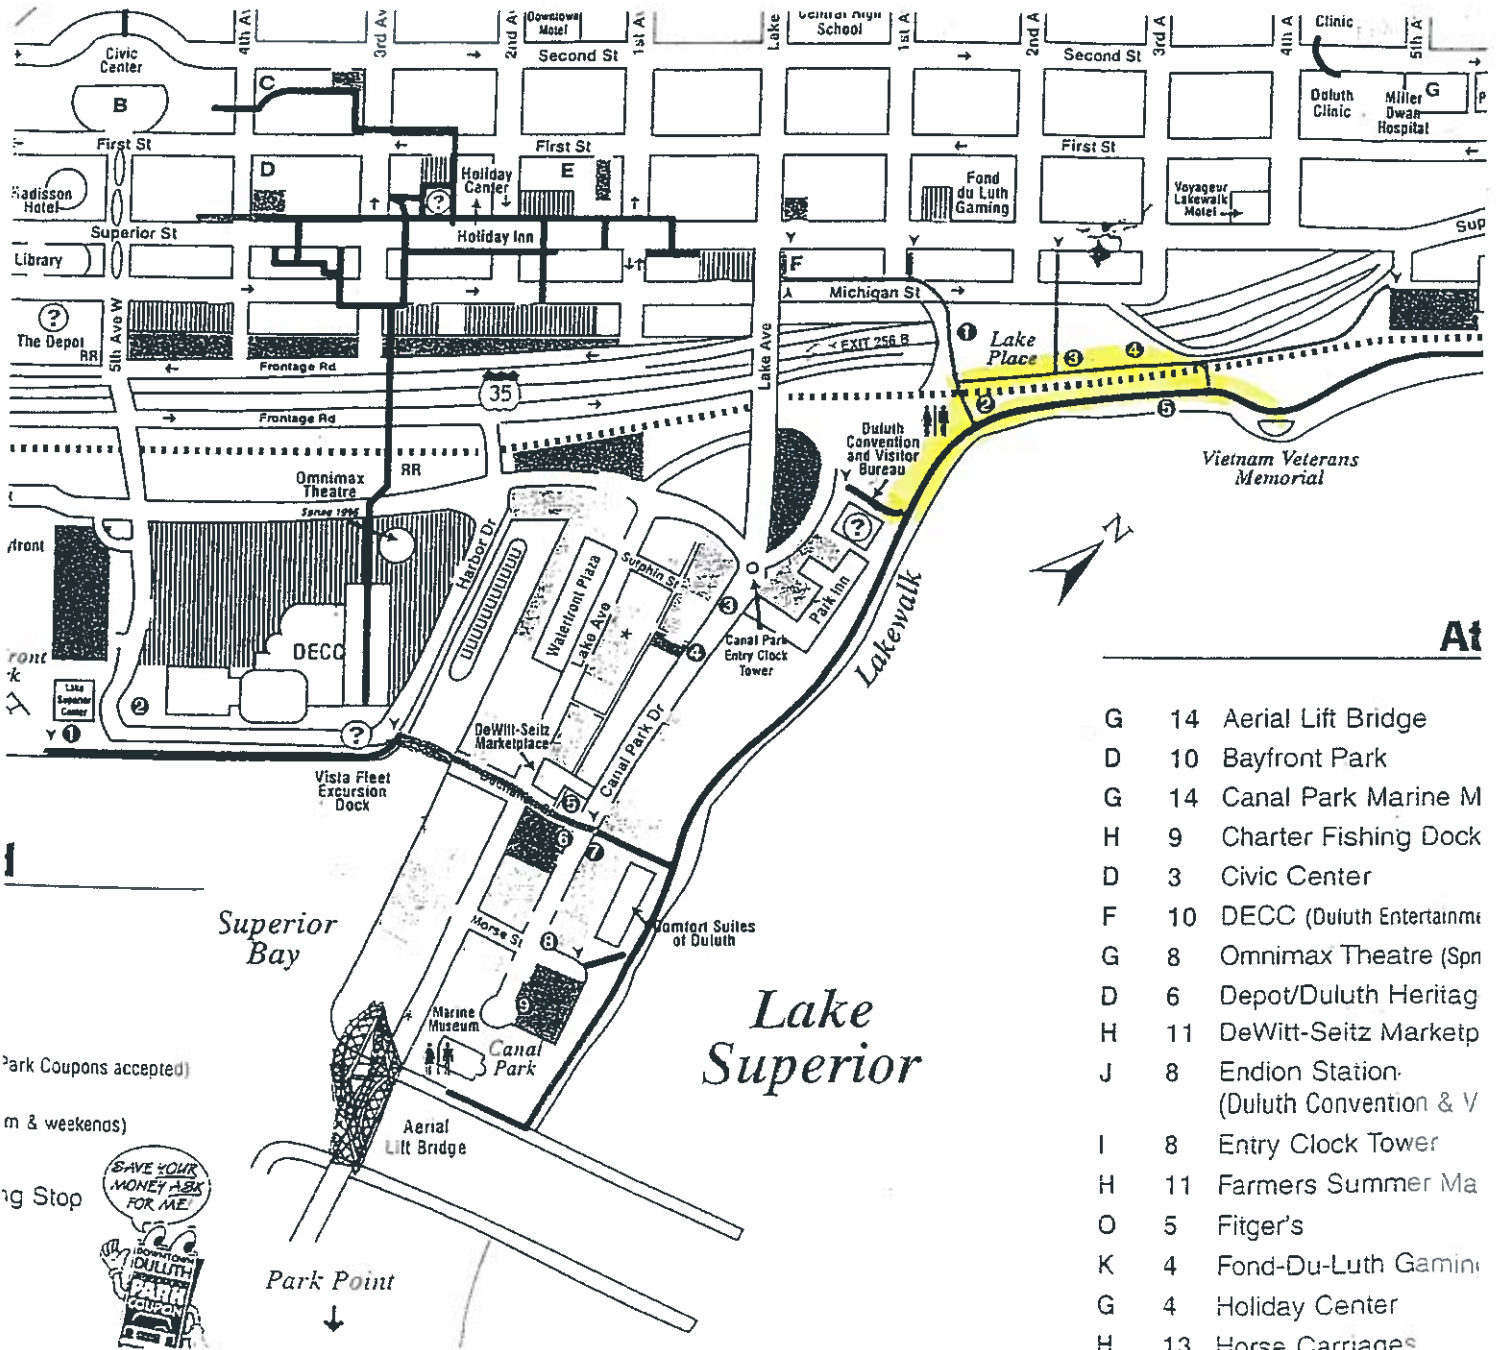

Busking, which is providing "entertainment," is allowed only in designated areas of the Lakewalk and in Lake Place Park with an approved permit from the Parks and Recreation Division.
