Over the past couple of weeks the Duluth Police Department has received numerous reports of citizens having their debit/credit card numbers stolen and used in other states.

This case is currently under investigation by the Duluth Police Department Financial Crimes Unit. The Duluth Police Department is advising citizens to pay close attention to their bank statements and report any suspicious activity to their financial institutions.

If you are the victim of fraud, call 911 to make a police report. There is information about preventing Identity Theft on the Duluth Police Department website.
