On Monday, February 6th, 2012 at 4:05AM Duluth Police observed a white Chevrolet Cavalier at 102nd Avenue West and Gary Street traveling at a high rate of speed. As the patrol squad attempted to catch up to the vehicle it turned up 108th Avenue West near House Street, where 108th Avenue West comes to a dead-end. Officers found the vehicle abandoned there, still running with the driver's door open and a duffel bag on the ground. Officers could hear brush breaking in the distance as the suspect(s) ran off.

A Duluth Police Canine Unit responded and along with officers tracked the suspects for nearly an hour over a distance of approximately 2 miles.
