At approximately 12:55 a.m., Thursday, October 9, Duluth Police responded to a report of sounds of shots fired in the 600 block of North 3rd Avenue East. A 47-year-old male was located with apparent gunshot wounds and transported to a local hospital for non-life-threatening injuries. The suspect fled the scene. Investigators believe this wasn't a random incident. This remains an active and ongoing investigation. Additional information will be released as soon as we're able to.
