City of Duluth to keep portions of Skyline Parkway, other roads closed until further notice [DULUTH, MN] Due to the influx of water and moisture from the rapid snow melt, the City of Duluth is postponing the seasonal reopening to vehicular access of the following sections of Skyline Parkway until further notice. The City closes these sections of roadway to vehicular access annually in the winter and reopens them, conditions permitting, each spring.

The portions of roads remaining closed include:

- Skyline Parkway from 0.4 miles east of Glenwood Street to Maxwell Road

- Seven Bridges Road from Lakeview Chalet to Maxwell Road

- Maxwell Road from Skyline Parkway to Oak Street

- Skyline Parkway from 0.3 miles south of 100th Avenue West to the city limits

The first three road segments are located at the east end of Skyline Parkway, generally from the Lakeview Chalet on Seven Bridges Road to the Hawk Ridge overlook. The last-named segment is at the extreme western end of Skyline Parkway beyond Spirit Mountain, reaching the city limits. These seasonal roads will remain closed until further notice by the City of Duluth.
