City Clerk's office announces polling place changes in precincts 24 and 25 for municipal primary and general elections

[DULUTH, MN] The City of Duluth Clerk's Office is announcing that, due to building construction at St. Lawrence Catholic Church, voters in precinct 25 will vote at the polling place for precinct 24 in both the 2025 municipal primary and general elections. Both precincts will utilize Christ Lutheran Church, located at 2415 Ensign Street, as their polling station for the 2025 municipal elections.

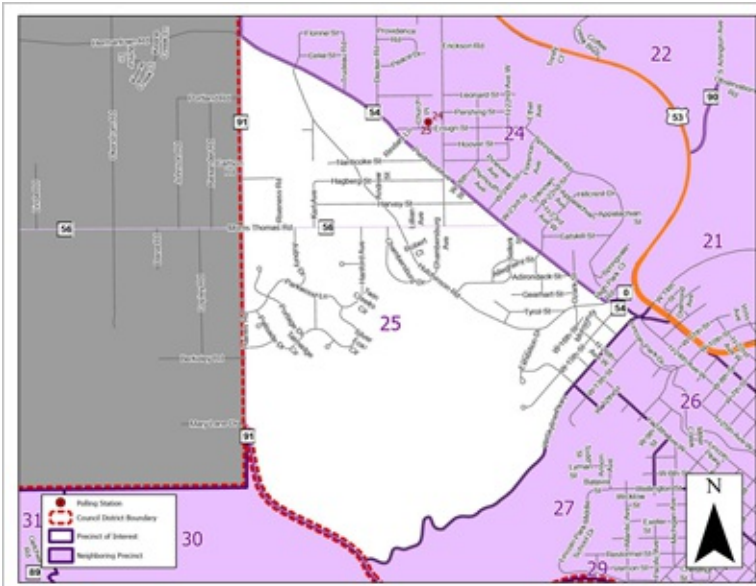

Precinct 25 and Precinct 24 are both located in the fourth City Council district in the Piedmont Heights neighborhood. See the included precinct map for detail.

The 2025 City of Duluth municipal primary election is Tuesday, August 12. Early voting for the primary election begins June 27 at City Hall and will be available as an option to voters through Monday, August 11. The 2025 municipal general election will be held on Tuesday, November 4, 2025.

To find out your precinct number, polling place, and sample ballot info, please visit <https://www.sos.state.mn.us/elections-voting/>. Please note that voters in precincts 24 and 25 may have already received a postcard from St. Louis County outlining the changes to their polling station.

Voters are encouraged to visit <https://pollfinder.sos.mn.gov/> to make sure they know where to vote. Further information about the 2025 municipal elections can be found on the City Clerk's website: <https://duluthmn.gov/city-clerk/elections-voter-services/election-information/>.
