5th Annual "Art in Me Festival" at Lester Park Sunday, August 11th

All Twin Ports area kids are invited to get artsy with the help of their parents from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday, August 11 at Duluth's Lester Park, 61st Avenue East and Superior St. in Lakeside.

The event is absolutely free to everyone!

The fifth-annual Art in Me festival, put on by the non-profit Duluth and Beyond, began in 2008 as a way to love and care for the Twin Ports community by supporting families and children as they discover their given gifts of artistic expression.

The festival consists of a series of 16 booths where children can make a variety of masterpieces to take home. The event features live music and group dances, puppeteers, and clowning. This year the list of art projects includes leather name tags, face painting, cookie decorating, charcoal drawing, assembling contact paper nature collages, t-shirt painting, printmaking, photography, watercoloring, making crazy hair, clay animals, pine cone bird feeders, musical instrument shakers and Birch bark art.

Children can expect to cart home armfuls of their own creations!
